TREATY MAY BE SIGNED

Hopeful Signs Apparent In Peace Situation 'at Paris.'

RIOS MAY POSE FOR EFFECT.

Postponement of the Joint Session Requested by Dons.

SPAIN'S REPLY EXPECTED SOON.

One of the Spanish Commissioners Affirms That the Answer of the Madrid Government at the Next Meeting Will a Definite One.

Paris, Nov. 23.—At the request of the Spanish peace commissioners there will be no joint session, pending instructions from Madrid. The date of the next meeting is not yet fixed.

The postponement is regarded as a hopeful sign that the treaty will be signed.

While the Madrid government has not yet received the text of the American ultimatum, the Spanish ministers received quite enough by telegraph on Monday night to enable them to instruct their commissioners to retire were such their intentions.

The belief was confidently expressed by several of the American commissioners that before the expiration of the time fixed by the Americans, namely Monday next, the Spaniards will acquiesce in the United States' Philippine offer and that, ultimately, the treaty will be signed by all the Spanish commissioners.

It is true that the course which Senor Montero Rios, president of the Spanish commission, will follow is still uncertain, as he continues to "play to the gallery." But a leading member of the American commission believes he will sign with the other Spaniards. In any case his place on the commission will be speedily filled, probably by Senor Leon y Castillo, the Spanish ambassador here.

Senor Montero Rios sent a communication to the American commissioners in which were a number of questions. The most important of them, and to get an answer to which the letter was undoubtedly written, was tucked away in the middle of the letter. It asked, in effect, if the Americans really meant that the ultimatum must be answered by Monday. The Spaniards were assured that such was the intent and the answer has cleared the air.

A member of the Spanish commission assured the press that the next meeting of the commissioners will take place on Friday or Saturday, and that Spain's answer then will be the last she will make, and that it will be a definite conclusion of the matter in hand. This utterance is looked upon as indicating that Spain will sign the treaty of peace.

A WAR CORRESPONDENT
Says the Soldiers Had Plenty to Eat While in Cuba.

New York, Nov. 23.—James J. F. Archibald, the San Francisco newspaper man, who was with the First regular infantry from California to Santiago, was the first witness before the war investigating commission. In reply to General Beaver's instruction to tell everything he could and to make any criticism he considered likely to be useful to the commissioner, Mr. Archibald said his chief reason for volunteering to appear before the commission was because of the published statements that there was great hardships in Cuba because of a lack of food. "I wish to say," he said, "that I have had considerable experience campaigning with the troops in the west, and the regular soldiers have had much rougher experiences than they did in Cuba. There was plenty of food. The inability of the volunteers to adapt themselves to circumstances was due to their own inexperience."

"There was a scarcity of medical supplies, of surgeons and of nurses. It appeared to me that Dr. Wood caused considerable unnecessary suffering by his severe administration of his hospital near Siboney."

"He refused to allow any one to visit the sick, and once when I was trying to find a wounded man of the First Infantry he refused to let me in. He declined to allow Cubans who had offered to build shelter for the sick to do so, and when I tried to reason with him he said, 'I am running this hospital to suit myself,' which I suppose was proper. I mention that incident as the only matter that came to my notice, in which I blame the authorities."

Spain Is Responsible.
Madrid, Nov. 23.—A semi-official note contains an appeal to all Spaniards to appeal to all Spaniards to furnish assistance to save the national credit "if they do not wish foreign capital to be withdrawn from Spain." The note adds: "Some people believe Cuba ought to assume her own debt, no matter in whose hands is her sovereignty, because she herself possesses the security therefor in the form of the customs. If, however, nobody will assume the debt Spain must pay what Cuba can not, because Spain made herself responsible."

Returned From Interior.

Manilla, Nov. 23.—Paymaster W. B. Wilcox and Naval Cadet L. R. Sargent of the United States monitor Monadnock have returned here after a six weeks' tour of the interior. They were well received everywhere. Traveling, however, was most difficult. They crossed the provinces of Pangasin and Nueva Ecija, and then traveled over the mountains. The scenery was magnificent, but the roads were execrable. The officers next visited the watershed of the Rio Grande and Casayab. They say its fertility is marvelous.

A Doubtful Claim.

London, Nov. 23.—At a meeting of the Cuba Submarine Telegraph company the chairman, C. W. Parish, referring to the cutting of the cables of the province of Santiago de Cuba by the Americans, said he had requested the assistance of the foreign office to obtain compensation from the United States. The foreign office, he added, had promised to do its utmost to assist the company, but it was pointed out as doubtful if the claim would be admitted.

First General Order.

Washington, Nov. 23.—The war department issued the first general orders to the occupation of the central and western provinces of Cuba by the United States troops. The order contemplates the early beginning of the movement, as the Spanish troops are expected to have progressed with the evacuation movement early in December.

Homeward Bound.

San Juan, Porto Rico, Nov. 23.—The United States transport Michigan left here to collect troops from other ports. The artillery homeward bound consists of Lemley's and Thorp's batteries. The Michigan is due in New York in about 10 days. The steamer Relief of the hospital service sailed for home with 253 sick and convalescent soldiers.

Nothing Settled.

Madrid, Nov. 23.—After the meeting of the cabinet council a minister said that nothing definite had been decided on the subject of peace.

Blanco's Resignation Accepted.

Madrid, Nov. 23.—The Official Gazette publishes a decree accepting the resignation of Marshal Blanco as Captain General of Cuba.

No Deaths In Ponce.

Washington, Nov. 23.—General Brooke cabled the war department from Ponce that no deaths occurred in his command.

THE QUAY CASES

Are Continued Until Next Week at Request of Defendants.

Philadelphia, Nov. 23.—United States Senator M. S. Quay, his son Richard R. Quay and ex-State Treasurer Benjamin J. Haywood were to have pleaded in the quarter sessions court to the indictments charging them with the misuse of the moneys of the commonwealth, and of the People's bank.

The defendants appeared in court at 11:30 a. m. with their counsel, and the latter at once asked for a few days' time, claiming that the time since the indictments were presented had been insufficient for their examination, and that they had therefore not determined whether to advise their clients to enter a plea of demurrer.

District Attorney Graham objected to a postponement, but after some deliberation and questioning of counsel the court ordered a postponement until Monday next.

Difference of Opinion.

Washington, Nov. 23.—The Anglo-American commission apparently has determined to reach some final settlement on the Bering sea question before going on with any other subject, as this was the sole question considered at the sessions, and after a Thanksgiving recess, it will be the special order for Friday. The day was devoted to further rigid cross-examination of the American and Canadian experts as to the basis for their appraisals of the value of the Canadian sealing fleet.

The line of examination was shown that one of the vital differences between the two sides is as to what vessels are rightfully included within the sealing fleet. The Canadians contend these vessels, including not only the 30 which engaged in sealing last year, but also a large number which are in that business, but did not actually engage in it because of restrictions placed upon the industry by the American government.

Steamer Wrecked.

Duluth, Nov. 23.—The steamer Tampa is reported wrecked on the north shore of Lake Superior. The crew, according to a dispatch received here from Two Harbors, is safe at Beaver bay. The Tampa is a large freighter.

MASTERED THE GUNS.

Our Naval Victories Was Due to Excellent Marksmanship.

PREPARATION FOR THE WAR

Recommendations of the Navigation Bureau to Congress Looking to the Improvement of the United States Navy.

Washington, Nov. 23.—Far out of the lines of the ordinary report of the bureau officers is that of Captain Crowninshield, chief of the bureau of navigation, navy department.

Not only was the head of this bureau a member of the war or strategy board, as it came to be known, but he was responsible for the execution of the plans formed by that board, and for the movement of every ship and the assignment of every officer.

The war history begins with the simple statement of certain precautionary orders that were issued, showing commendable foresight.

These orders show that four months before Cervera's fleet reached this side our whole North Atlantic fleet was ready for any emergency, and within striking distance of one of the two points from which attack might come.

Trained gunners to the number of 45, who had just graduated from the course on the Amphitrite, were placed on the vessels of the fleet and rendered a good account of themselves.

As exhibiting the quality of these men, Captain Crowninshield cites the destruction of three gunboats by the little Scorpion in Manzanillo harbor July 18, of which the commanding officer reports, "Orders were given to obtain the range with two of the 6-pounders, after which the first shell from the 5-inch gun blew her up, apparently having struck her boilers."

Captain Crowninshield says:

The completeness of our naval victory during the war, and the almost absolute immunity from injury which our ships and crews enjoyed, naturally led to a general conclusion that our gunnery had much to do with the matter. As a matter of fact, all reports bear out this conclusion. The percentage of hits, smaller it is true, than what has been obtained at target practice was modified by three conditions; in the first place, the demolition of the enemy's ships has usually been so complete that it is certain that the marks of many hits were obliterated by subsequent fires and explosions; in the second place, the ranges at which the combats have taken place have usually been so much greater than those used in target practice that this difference will account for a reduction of from 30 to 60 per cent in the percentage of hits and finally the rate of fire was much higher in the battles than at target practice.

The bureau had been endeavoring before the war to increase the rate of target fire, and when all this is considered it will be found that the "hits per gun per minute" have been remarkably high.

In fact, it appears that the experience of each combat as that our marksmanship was so far superior that at a range at which the Spanish guns and gunners were ineffective, our guns and gunners were so effective that before the range was or could be reduced, the Spanish ships were either seriously crippled or their crew demoralized.

The experience of the year has been another demonstration of the importance to the nation of sea power. From the first the only apprehension felt in this country was on account of the Spanish navy.

It was Cervera's ships that were feared—we did not fear the Spanish army—would not we have feared it, if it had been three times as powerful, unless it had been supported by a navy powerful enough to have formed an efficient convoy and brought it to this coast. On the contrary, the Spanish navy, even without the Spanish army, would have been a menace, though it had consisted of only one firstclass cruiser.

Operations of Army and Navy.

Touching upon the combined operations of the army and navy, the report says that happily all points of difference which arose between the commanders during the campaign were satisfactorily solved by victory. One glaring defect of the system of joint operations was found, however, in the matter of transporting and convoying troops, and it is recommended that to secure smoother handling of such a campaign, the navy be by law charged with the transport service.

The navigation bureau recommends that congress authorize the increase of the naval force to 20,000 men for general service and 2,500 apprentices, and an argument is made to show the absolute necessity of some such increase unless the reserves on the receiving ships are to be reduced below the danger point, an evil that was very closely approached during the last war.

A tribute is paid to the good work of the naval militia in manning the coast defense stations, and the vessels of the auxiliary naval force, and furnished material for crews for the auxiliary vessels serving with the regular fleet.

He shows that difficulty was experienced in mustering the men in the department having no right to call upon them, and they, having no responsibility to the navy department, were not subject to orders.

Therefore, the bureau recommends the passage of the Cummings bill, which provides in substance for appropriations for the naval militia on an entirely different basis. This would provide for the creation of a national naval reserve entirely under the control of the department.

Immigrants Detained.

New York, Nov. 23.—The Holland-American line steamer Spaarndam, which arrived from Rotterdam and Boulogne with 36 cabin and 407 steerage passengers, is detained at quarantine, owing to the presence of a case of smallpox, among her steerage passengers. The patient is Lisa Nassar, 16, who was taken ill on Nov. 17.

SEVERE ARRAIGNMENT

At Cuyahoga County Judges Made By Judge Blandin.

Cleveland, Nov. 23.—After hearing the testimony of several unimportant witnesses in the proceedings against State Senator Burke, the attorneys for both sides announced that all their witnesses had been examined and that they were ready to begin arguments.

Attorney Johnson opened for the Bar association and Attorney Foran followed for the defense. Judge Blandin made the closing argument for the prosecution. The trial committee then retired to consider the testimony. A decision may not be reached for several days.

Judge Blandin, one of the three prosecutors of the charges against Senator Vernon H. Burke, arose to speak, as every one supposed, in support of the charges and in defense of Judge Dellenbaugh.

Instead of doing that, the judge did not attempt to affirm or deny the truth of the charges, nor did he attempt to defend Judge Dellenbaugh.

He made a bitter and sensational attack on the whole bench of Cuyahoga county. He said he knew the risk he was taking, but for that he did not care. For some time the ex-judges and old tried members of the bar who listened to Blandin's passionate utterances stood amazed at his daring, then they broke into cheers. When Judge Blandin finished they cheered and clapped their hands again and again.

Judge Blandin declared it was the bench which needed reforming first; the elimination of rottenness should commence with the bench. He went into details, and did not hesitate to say he was talking about Judge Walter C. Ong and Judge T. K. Dissette. He said it was a comparatively insignificant thing whether Judge Dellenbaugh was impeached and driven from the bench, or whether Vernon Burke was dismissed.

It is now thought that A. J. White and Louis Meyer, a guest who dropped dead, were the only people to lose their lives. All the other guests are thought to have escaped, and all the employees have been accounted for.

"Lucky" Baldwin had a narrow escape from perishing with his firetrap. Amid all the din he slept peacefully until his room was broken into and he was dragged from his bed.

E. J. Baldwin stated that he carried $100,000 insurance, but he could not remember in what company.

Filled With Guests.

The guests were panic-stricken and many jumped from windows, and many of them have been taken to the receiving hospital. The fire spread along the building, making it difficult for the firemen to do effective work in extinguishing the flames.

There were many chambermaids employed in the hotel, nearly all of whom sleep on the top floor, where the fire raged fiercest. Fears were entertained that some of them burned to death.

The Baldwin hotel, only second to the Palace among the great caravansaries of this city, was furnished in elegant style. The first floor is partly occupied by stores and the basement by a fashionable cafe. The Baldwin theater, now under lease of Gottlob Marx & Company, is a leading place of amusement on the Pacific coast. The play "Secret Service," produced by William Gillette and his eastern company, was played there during the evening, and it was some time after the performance that the fire broke out. All the scenery and property of the piece are ruined.

Smoke was first seen issuing from the roof of the hotel by several young men who were standing on the sidewalk. They rushed into the office of the hotel, and with the aid of the Baldwin hotel employees went through the corridors, giving the alarm.

The house was full of guests, it being a popular stopping place of racing men and other strangers, who are now visiting the city in large numbers. The entire city was illuminated by the fire. The loss will be in the neighborhood of $1,000,000.

Mr. N. D. Noon of St. Louis was carried to the receiving hospital, having sprained his ankle.

James F. McKee of Cincinnati occupied a room on the third floor. He had a hard time getting from the hotel owing to smoke which filled the corridors.

Better Order at Pana.

Springfield, Ills., Nov. 23.—Adjutant General Reece returned from Pana and reported on the mining situation to Governor Tanner. General Reece reports that the turbulent spirits on both sides are subsiding and leaving town. A few desultory shots were fired during the night, but the persons firing the shots were careful to keep far from the militiamen.

Pola, Austria, Nov. 23.—The imperial yacht Hohenzollern, with the emperor and empress of Germany on board, arrived here. She was saluted by the forts and Austrian warships. The latter were decorated with flags.

London, Nov. 23.—Severe snowstorms, the first of the season, prevailed over the Midlands and North Britain and heavy gales are sweeping the coasts. Trains and mail boats have been delayed.

For Kentucky—Fair; variable winds.

THE movement by the ladies (?) up North to prevent lynchings in the South seems to have for its prime object the abuse and calumnia of Southern women, judging by the utterances of one of the leaders at a meeting in New York recently. They must be a sweet set, and are certainly beneath the notice of decent people.

GEORGE F. EDMUNDS, ex-United States Senator from Vermont, and admittedly among the first, if not the very foremost, lawyers of the country, discussing the subject of annexing the Philippines, says: "We told Spain and told the world by a solemn declaration of our Congress when we began this war against Spain, that we rejected the idea of territorial aggrandizement. Was that a lie, a sham, a false pretense? And we stand up in the face of the world and say, 'Yes, we have been lying?'

THE Supreme Court of Tennessee has declared the anti-cigarette law of that State constitutional. The opinion declares that cigarettes are not legitimate articles of commerce, because they are wholly noxious and deleterious to health and therefore are not within the provision of the Federal Constitution protecting legitimate commerce. It also holds that the conventional cigarette package is not an "original package" in the true commercial sense, for which additional reason the Federal law has no application to this statute.

CRUEL AND UNNECESSARY OPERATIONS.

Dr. Nicholas Senn, of Chicago, an up-to-date surgeon who represents a very different class from the one he describes, recently remarked: "This is an age of bold surgery. The surgeon who is careful in selecting his cases, slow and painstaking in his work, need not look for recognition on the part of his students or colleagues. It is the man who, by a single stroke of his knife, lays open the abdomen, removes two healthy organs, closes the incision and returns the patient to her room in seven minutes, who commands the attention of his audience and bears with a self-confident dignity the proud distinction of being a bold and brilliant operator."

This speech is deserving of attention, not only for what it says, but more particularly for omitting to discuss important points, which are of vital importance to all. Every third-rate medical school is annually pouring forth, under the name of surgeons, a swarm of bullet-headed butchers' apprentices who carry devastation into the fairest communities of the land. They are far more deadly than the microbes which they are supposed to fight, and their claim to "boldness" is amusing when one remembers it is the patient that takes the risk.

BACHELORS BARRED

From Election to Parliament by the Greeks.
A Married Men's Government.

[Paris Cable New York World.]

It appears from a recent proposition that the Greeks intend to exclude all bachelors from their Parliament. The idea is that the man who has no wife really has no stake in the Commonwealth, and if he is represented that is as much as he can ask for; a representative he ought never to be, for he represents nothing except himself. And herein the Greeks seem to fancy that they have found a cure for celibacy, so that all citizens will marry, and the lawful and legitimate population of the country will increase, while every young Greek having before him as his greatest ambition a seat in the Chamber will know that his best assurance thereof will be the vote of his constituents based on the size of his family.

Should the measure be passed Europe will watch the experiment of the Parliament of the married men with much interest. It will not last long, because when women are elected to Parliament they will restore the bachelor legislator, as the sittings would be too dull for them without him.

BURDEN OF MILLIONS.

That's One of the Blessings of the Imperial Policy the McKinley Administration Has Entered Upon.

[Washington Special St. Louis Republic.]

An annual budget of $500,000,000, exclusive of the postal service, will be one of the burdens of the imperial policy upon which the United States have entered. The cost of the peace establishment, before the war with Spain, ranged about $1,000,000 for each calendar day, or $365,000 per year.

The increase now likely to be required, even in years of peace, is due to the necessity for maintaining garrisons in each of the new dependencies. Larger appropriations will be required also for the increase of the navy and its maintenance on a fighting footing in Pacific waters and for the civil government of the islands brought under American dominion. Large sums will be required to fortify Manila and other Philippine Islands, if the United States are to become a world power and to be prepared to guard the gates of the Pacific in case of war.

Estimates for such expenditures as these will not be submitted at the coming session of Congress, nor estimates for the improvement of rivers and harbors in the new dependencies. The bare cost of the army and navy, the ordinary expenditures of the Government, is not unlikely to require the whole of the proceeds of existing revenue laws and justify the declarations of Mr. Dingley, that no reductions in domestic taxation can be undertaken at the present time. Estimates for the fiscal year beginning next July and ending on June 30, 1900, are now coming into the Treasury from the various bureaus. They have not yet been completed and classified, but there is little doubt that they will call for $500,000,000, even with an allowance for the reductions which are usually made by the committees of Congress. The receipts of the Government under the present unusual laws will nearly reach this amount exclusive of the postal receipts, which are more than absorbed by the cost of the postal service.

Taking customs collections at $200,000,000 per year, internal revenue collections under the old and new laws at $275,000,000, and miscellaneous receipts at $25,000,000, about $500,000,000 will be realized from the ordinary receipts of the Government. This would just about make both ends meet under the new imperial policy, if the additions to the army and navy and the requirements for fortifications and other public works were kept within $10,000,000 per month. It is possible that a considerable portion of this increased expense will be borne by the dependencies. Cuba is counted upon for a customs revenue of about $15,000,000 and the Philippines are expected to afford about the same amount from their larger, but poorer, population.

The time may come when all extraordinary expenses for garrison and fortifications will be assumed by the dependencies themselves, but no estimates upon this subject can yet be made at the War Department or the Treasury. The United States must put their hands deep into their own pockets to foot the bills pending the formulation of their new imperial policy.

A MAYSVILLE NEGRO

Convicted of Stealing a Watch and Sent to the Work House at Cincinnati.

[Ripley Bee.]

Chas. Ramsey, colored, (no kin to our Chas. Ramsey) was arrested Monday by Policeman Mussinon on the wharf, charged with stealing a watch from Marion Simms, a fireman on the steamer M. P. Wells. Another man named John W. Morris was also arrested at the same time, but after a hearing before Mayor Edwards, was set at liberty.

Ramsey did not fare so well. When searched by Mussinon after his arrest, he threw the watch down the grade. T. S. Thomson and Wm. Anderson saw him do this and testified to the same in court. The watch was found and was dead evidence against Ramsey's guilt, and Mayor Edwards fined him $50 and costs and thirty days in the Cincinnati work house. Both parties reside in Maysville and were deckhands on the Wells."

Ramsay was taken to the works Wednesday.

Fortunately a friend advised trying Electric Bitters, and to my great joy and surprise, the first bottle made a decided improvement. I continued their use for three weeks and am now a well man. AT HAYSWOOD.

A Very Pleasing Entertainment Given Tuesday Evening by the Music Class—Enjoyable Program Rendered.

A very pleasing entertainment was given Tuesday evening by some of the members of the music class, assisted by Miss Moore and Miss Lettie Roser, in the chapel at Hayswood Seminary.

The program opened with a bright quartette well rendered by Misses Martic, Bendel and Roser, assisted by Miss Moore. This was followed by a pleasing piano solo rendered by Miss Elizabeth Graham Barbour. The two vocal solos sung by Miss Pluvia Gill in her naive manner were well received by the audience. Miss Scottia Worthington played a beautiful selection entitled "Riding Song" by Heller. This was followed by a piece called "The Fair," by Gurlitt rendered with precision and clearness of touch by Miss Haddie Cochran.

Miss Marie Rains received numerous congratulations on the marked improvement in her voice. She sang with beautiful intonation "The Waiting Heart" by Young, ably accompanied in the violin obligato by Miss Lettie Roser.

Miss Pluvia Gill won compliments from all by her fine dynamic shading in the Clementi sonatine with piano accompaniment.

Miss Elizabeth Adamson was on the program for a number, but was not able to be present.

Miss Minnie Roser sang two very pleasing numbers and displayed fine intonation and enunciation and a pleasing manner in her rendering of the two pieces,—Titania by Torry and Twickenham Ferry. The two sonatines by Clementi were rendered by Miss Frances Barbour and Miss Elizabeth Barbour respectively with precision of touch and keen sense of rhythmical values.

Miss Bessie Sutton sang with a beautiful voice and good interpretation two songs entitled "Clear and Cool" and "Good Bye," by Tosti.

The program was brought to a happy close by a beautiful duo entitled Faust, well played by Misses Moore and Roser. This completed one of the most successful programs given at Hayswood Seminary during the past few years.

The long distance telephone franchise was sold Wednesday by Mayor Stallcup at public auction to the Central Telephone Company for $30. There were two other bids.

The crowds of buyers increase daily, and is the best possible proof of every statement made and the genuineness of every garment offered. There is not another Clothing store in Kentucky to-day that enjoys the confidence of the public to the high degree ours does. RECTORVILLE.

Tuesday will be a day long remembered by the people of Rectorville, it being the sixty-fifth anniversary of the birthday of our fellow townsmen, Mr. H. V. Rigen. He commemorated the day by inviting a number of his immediate friends to his pleasant home to a dining. Among those present were: B. P. Anno and wife, R. L. Cooper and wife, J. T. Cooper and wife, J. H. Anno and wife, W. W. Stubblefield and mother, J. B. Bradley and wife, T. F. Goodwin and wife, C. E. Rummans and wife, Mrs. J. F. Pollitt, Cate Frame and wife, Mrs. Jno. Farrar, Miss Della Goodwin and J. W. Thompson. Among other presents received, Mr. Rigen was made the recipient of a beautiful arm chair presented by the gentlemen present. T. F. Goodwin presented the chair in a neat, well chosen speech to which "Uncle Henry" responded with grace and warm feeling. The song "Lead Me Gently Home" was sung by T. F. Goodwin, accompanied on the organ by Mrs. Carrie Pollitt, and assisted by Miss Della Goodwin on the chorus. After the song the hostess led the guests to the dining room where the table stood laden with all the delicacies of the season. When the company had partaken bountifully they repaired to the parlor where they enjoyed the afternoon with chat and music, but like all of life's gatherings, the evening passed away all too quickly, and the time of departure came, the guests one by one wishing "Uncle Henry" many happy returns of his birthday.

HEALTHY, happy children make better men and women of us all. A little care and a little planning before birth is often more important than anything that can be done after. On the mother's health and strength depend the life and the future of the children. A weak and sickly woman cannot bear strong and healthy children. Most of the weakness of women is utterly inexcusable. Proper care and proper medicine will cure almost any disorder of the feminine organism. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription has been tested in thirty years of practice. It is healing, soothing, strengthening. It is perfectly natural in its operation and effect. By its use, thousands of weak women have been made strong and healthy—have been made the mothers of strong and healthy children. Taken during gestation, it makes childbirth easy and almost painless and insures the well being of both mother and child. Send 21 cents in one cent stamps to World's Dispensary Medical Association, Buffalo, N. Y., and receive Dr. Pierce's 100s page "Common Sense Medical Adviser," profusely illustrated.

PAY THE PENALTY.

That's What Corporations Must Do For Failing to Report—An Important Decision Affirmed.

FRANKFORT, KY., November 23.—The Court of Appeals to-day affirmed the cases of the Louisville and Jeffersonville Ferry Company vs. the Commonwealth and Central and Railway Bridge Company vs. the Commonwealth, Judge Guffy delivering the opinion. In the first named case a fine of $2,500 was assessed for failure to report to the Auditor as required by sections 4077 and 4078, of the Kentucky Statutes, and the last named case a fine of $1,000 was assessed for the same offense.

The Central Bridge Company is at Covington, Ky.

The case of the Louisville Tobacco Warehouse Company was not passed upon as it included other points not involved in the present case, and will be considered with another class of private corporations.

About 120 large corporations of the same kind were indicted in the Franklin Circuit Court under the same statute for failing to file reports with the Secretary of State and Auditor. These corporations have headquarters at the various towns and cities over the State, and were all heard together before Judge Cantrell.

A test case was made in the present appeal, the decision this morning affecting only public corporations. About half of the indictments are against the largest public corporations in the State. The statute provides a fine of $1,000 and $50 a day in addition for each day the corporation is delinquent in reporting.

The judgments will amount to many hundred thousand dollars, and it is claimed by some of the corporations that they will be confiscated if they are enforced.

The decision is a personal triumph for Commonwealth's Attorney R. B. Franklin, at whose instance the indictments were filed. County Attorney Polsgrove will get a large fee in the case.

You will miss one great subject for "Thanksgiving" if you don't attend the matinee at Visitation Academy Thursday afternoon at 3 p. m. Adults and children 10c.

The Corbett-Sharkey Fiasco.

New York, Nov. 23.—The sporting fraternity who put up their good cash to see the Corbett-Sharkey fight are generally disgusted. Some regard Corbett, the ex-champion of the world, as the yellow dog of the prize ring. Because Connie McVey, one of Corbett's seconds jumped into the ring during the ninth round, Sharkey was declared the winner. The move was said to have been preconcerted, and all bets were declared off.

ORIENTAL ADVICES.

British Minister at Pekin May Take a Band In Affairs.

Tacoma, Nov. 23.—The Northern Pacific liner Olympia brings the following Oriental advices:

A telegram published by the Chuwo states that Sir Claude MacDonald, the British minister at Pekin, will probably make the following representations to the Chinese government on the subject points at an early date:

First.—The treaty powers will not recognize the restoration of the regency on so flimsy a pretext as the illhealth of the emperor, which is not sufficient to justify a change in the sovereignty.

Second.—The work of reform started by the emperor must not be suspended, not only in the interests of peace in the east, but for the sake also of the maintenance of the Chinese empire.

Third.—It is contrary to principles of humanity to visit capital punishment upon political antagonists, and this practice must be discontinued in future.

Fourth.—That the Chinese government must take greater precautions to prevent assaults by savages on foreign residents in Pekin in broad daylight.

The British minister is now conducting negotiations with the ministers of other powers on the subject, but no decision has as yet been arrived at.

Judge Gordon Resigns.

Harrisburg, Nov. 23.—Judge Gordon of Philadelphia has resigned and Governor Hastings has accepted his resignation. It was expected that the trial of Senator Quay would be held in the court, presided over by him, and Senator Quay's friends and attorneys have declared that under no circumstances would they permit Judge Gordon to try the case, alleging that he was the mysterious power that was urging the district attorney in the prosecution.

Beaten to Death.

Oakland, Cal., Nov. 23.—The coroner's inquest over the remains of Lillian Brandes, the 13-year-old girl who was supposed to have committed suicide by hanging at Berkley, has resulted in a verdict charging her father with murder and naming her stepmother as an accessory. The evidence tended to show that the child had been beaten to death and hanged to a bed.

Fatally Burned.

Elkton, Mich., Nov. 23.—Mrs. Thomas Stephens was burned to death and Alex Ross was fatally burned during a fire in Mrs. Stephen's house, caused by the explosion of an oil stove. The two were attempting to remove the stove when their clothing caught fire. Mrs. Stephen's daughter also suffered serious burns.

Troops Needed at Seoul.

Yokohama, Nov. 23.—There has been street fighting among the political parties at Seoul, capital of Korea. On one side 23 persons were killed, and further bloodshed is feared. The Japanese government has been asked to send troops to preserve order at Seoul.

To Pay Stamp Tax.

St. Louis, Nov. 23.—On application of the Business Men's league of this city the state supreme court has awarded an alternative writ of mandamus against the American and the Wells-Fargo Express companies, to compel them to pay the war stamp tax.
